Big Republican Majority Shown By Registration

Official Figures Released
Show 17,631 Republicans,
5,422 Democrats

FIGURES ARE FOR RURAL SECTIONS

Forecasted Democratic Registration Gains Are Not Shown By Report

Overwhelming Republican majorities in the different boroughs and townships of Lawrence county are shown by the official registration figures, released at the county commissioners' office this morning. Total Republican registration is 17,631 and Democratic 5,422.

By these figures it will be seen that Republicans outnumber Democrats by more than three to one.

Surprise Figures

The registration figures will be a surprise to those who have been predicting that there would be a big increase in Democratic registrations. The Democrats have gained some followers but nothing like the number that some of the party leaders have been predicting.

In only four districts of the county, which are normally Democratic, do Democrats outnumber Republicans. These are the two districts in Washington township and the fifth and sixth districts of Wayne township. In the third district of Wayne there is a tie, each party having 43 registered voters.

Big Republican Majorities

One of the surprises of the registration is the huge Republican majorities in industrial or districts located near to industrial centers. For instance Bessemer, in the limestone district, has 463 Republicans to 174 Democrats. Shenango township, on the outskirts of New Castle, Union

PA NEWC OBSERVES

New Castle's prize gardener of the year seems to be Leonard Hibbard, of 629 Superior street, who is harvesting roasting ears from his garden patch near the B. and O. roundhouse, at the present time. No other claimant for early "roasting ears" has been heard of by Pa Newc. The corn was planted about May 10 or 12, Mr. Hibbard says.

This sultry weather makes housewives abandon their home duties to a certain extent, and yesterday, Pa Newc was informed, that when driving by on the East Brook road, he noticed a middle aged couple working outside in the shade of trees. The master was attending to the cucumber patch while the missus sat on a log, knitting.

No new detours are announced for the local district for the period ending July 25, by the State Highway System. Oilings operations are scheduled to take place between Portersville, and Moore's Corners, which is located beyond Harlanburg, on Route 108.

Mother Nature has been pretty good to Lawrence county farmers this summer, although many of them were wishing that the rain would have held off until they had their oats etc. harvested. The ground had begun to get pretty dry again, but rains yesterday and today, have given growing crops additional moisture.

'Mystery Man' Taken In Westwood Case

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, July 23.—Joe Dundee, named as the "mysterious stranger" who spent a few hours in a McKees Rocks hotel two days before Mrs. Martha Westwood was shot to death was brought here today from Elyria, O.

Dundee's arrest followed information obtained from Patsy Valicenti, Coraopolis suspect who has been held since Friday for violation of the firearms act. Valicenti's attorney announced the prisoner would waive a hearing on the firearms charge and provide bail sometime later today.

As soon as Dundee arrived here he was questioned by District Attorney Andrew T. Park who announced he also will question James J. Westwood, McKees Rocks square and husband of the slain woman, and Westwood's daughter, Bertha, 19.

Adam Kasprian, who rented the hotel room to the stranger two days before the murder, was brought to the district attorney's office and identified Dundee as the hotel patron.

Body Of Miss Mary Horegan Is Removed To Youngstown For Burial Today

After having been interred in the potter's field at the City-County home, the body of Miss Mary Horegan, found along the banks of the Mahoning river Sunday evening was exhumed today and taken back to Youngstown, her former home, for burial.

When the body was discovered, it was in a bad stage of decomposition, having lain along the banks of the Mahoning since last March, and was immediately buried at the county home.

It was stated that she had an insurance policy which would cover the cost of removal and burial.

Will Rogers Not Going With Post

Deny Rumors That Humorist Plans To Go On Russian Hop

POST PREPARES FOR NEW FLIGHT

(International News Service)
LOS ANGELES, July 23.—As Wiley Post, famed one-eyed, round-the-world flyer, prepared to take off on the first leg of his Siberian tiger hunting expedition, rumors that Will Rogers, screen comedian would accompany him, were denied today. "Entirely unfounded," was Rogers' comment.

While Post, as usual, surrounded his every move with secrecy officials at the airport here declared the take-off would not occur before Wednesday morning.

The first hop of Post's flight will take him to Seattle where pontoons will be installed on the Lockheed plane, and the flyer, who will be accompanied by his wife, will head for Nome, Alaska.

A base will be established at Nome from which Post will fly to Kamchatka, and Moscow.

Rumors, which would gain neither confirmation nor denial were current that Post, despite the hunting trip announcement, was making his flight as a trail mapping trip for Pan-American airways.

LOCAL MAN IS HURT IN CRASH AT BRIDGE

H. P. DeHuff, of 104 Reiber street, this city, received bruises and lacerations to his head and face Monday when the automobile he was driving veered from control and crashed into a pole on the Beaver Falls-New Brighton highway bridge. He was given emergency treatment at the office of a Beaver Falls physician.

The accident happened at the same spot where three Ellwood City men were injured last Saturday.

Not Enough Bathing Suit; She Is Jailed

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, July 23.—There was a general exodus westward from Blaize Manhattan today.

The girl was a Jersey amusement park. The lure was a bathing suit.

The reason was Nona L'Leslie, Nona, a dancer, appeared at the park pool yesterday in a bathing suit that like Ghunga Dint's attire, was nothing much before, and rather less than 'arf of that behind.'

She was promptly clapped into jail.

But this afternoon, she said, she'll get square. Quoting Nona:

"As a protest, I have enlisted a dozen girls to go swimming with me in old-style suits which cover our beautiful legs and arms. If that is what the police want, we'll give it to them."

Of course, Nona isn't interested (?) in publicity. She uttered this disclaimer.

"We intend to make those in charge realize our beauty is something not to be hidden."

Nye Neutrality Proposals Will Meet Opposition

State Department Against Measures As They Are Now Drafted

CONTENDS U. S. IS HANDICAPPED

Measures Would Prevent Diplomatic Influence In Averting Wars

By KINGSBURY SMITH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, July 23.—The state department will flatly oppose the Nye neutrality proposals in the form in which those measures designed to keep the United States out of the next war, are now drafted.

This was learned today following a state department conference on the neutrality problem. The conference was attended by Ambassador Norman H. Davis, America's disarmament expert.

Object To Mandatory Clause

The principal feature of the proposals to which the state department objects is that it would make the power granted the president mandatory rather than discretionary.

The proposals call for an arms embargo against all nations at war; the prohibiting of loans or credit to warring nations; and the withdrawal of protection from American citizens entering danger zones.

As now drafted, the proposals provide that these steps would become effective immediately upon the outbreak of war between other nations.

Would Deprise U. S. Of Influence

The state department contends that this mandatory feature would deprive the United States of its diplomatic influence in averting major wars.

The department favors the three measures provided for in the Nye proposals but it wants the president granted discretionary power to invoke them.

Otherwise, it is felt the United States would possess no influence to check a big nation from attacking.

Brings Charge After Coroner's Verdict Frees

(International News Service)
BUTLER, Pa., July 23.—District Attorney Edgar Negley today brought charges of voluntary manslaughter against John P. Kelly, secretary of the Structural Iron Workers Association, shortly after the labor official was cleared in the fatal shooting of John Hale, 56 year old transient, by a coroner's jury verdict of "justifiable homicide."

Kelly was released under $2,000 bond pending grand jury action after being brought before Alderman E. P. Peffer, on the district attorney's information.

Kelly testified he fired at Hale when the latter and two other transient camp members stopped him on the highway near Mars Saturday night because he feared he might be robbed of $160 he carried at the time.

RAINY WEATHER SPOILS PICNIC

Showers that brought welcome moisture to the crops practically ruined the Spanish War Veterans picnic at Van Gorder's Mills on Monday. The threatening weather of the morning kept down the attendance and about 30 of the veterans braved the elements to attend.

While the crowd was small the reunion spirit was broad and the veterans enjoyed themselves during the afternoon hours. Unfortunately the sports program had to be cancelled due to the rain. A picnic dinner was served in the grove.

FLOOD DAMAGE COSTLY TO STATE

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, July 23.—Almost a half million dollars will have to be expended by the department of highways to repair the havoc caused by recent floods, Secretary Warren Van Dyke said today.

Roads and bridges were swept away in northeastern Pennsylvania and great highway damage was suffered in Lehigh and Schuylkill counties, according to Van Dyke.

The crowd was a bathing suit. The reason was Nona L'Leslie, Nona, a dancer, appeared at the park pool yesterday in a bathing suit that like Ghunga Dint's attire, was nothing much before, and rather less than 'arf of that behind.'

Bessemer To Vote On Water System

Bessemer will vote in the November election upon whether or not it will bond itself for sufficient money to install a city water system. This action was decided upon Monday evening, when the council boro council met.

Several alternatives were considered. One was for the boro council to borrow up to the limit of its borrowing capacity and then have the balance necessary placed on the ballot in November to be voted upon.

Another was for the boro to set up "Authority" and borrow funds from the government.

After considering all angles the council decided that the people themselves should vote upon the matter and decide whether they wanted to bond themselves for the money necessary. The possibility of forming an "Authority" for the installation of the system was passed because of the possibility that the act permitting it does not cover water systems.

An exhaustive survey has been made and if the bond issue is approved in November work on the installation can start immediately after the bonds have been marketed. The plan is to drill artesian wells and provide water supply for the town and the people.

One Clash Occurs As Troops Are Stoned Near Strike Plant

(BULLETIN)

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., July 23.—The backbone of Indiana's first general strike was broken by 2,000 National Guardsmen here today. While militiamen roamed the city streets in automobiles with rifles and machine guns at a ready angle, merchants, factory owners and other business resumed their normal activities in ever increasing numbers.

If they make it, they're going to just about go to the head of the class in flights. Wouldn't it be wonderful if they did final turn that North Pole into a filling station.

If they make it, we want to give 'em a great welcome, not hold anything back just because they might be "Bolshevik Rushwicks."

Only a few restaurants and drug stores were open early today but during the morning, clothing stores, a few factories began to operate. Milk, ice and bread deliveries, however, were still missing, and there were no street cars, busses or taxi cabs operating.

State soldiers were the targets of bricks and stones when they entered premises of the Columbia Company here early today, but they did not fire on the rioters. Instead, city police hurled tear gas bombs and the militiamen with fixed bayonets, drove the crowd back and arrested five persons who allegedly hurled the missiles.

One state trooper and a member of the crowd were injured slightly during the melee.

PROPOSES NEW SAFETY MOVE

State Patrol Head Has Plan

Out-Of-State Motorists Would Get Instructions On Crossing Line

WOULD ALSO AID "SEE STATE" PROJECT

By JOHN W. SCOTZIN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, July 23—Out-of-state motorists visiting Pennsylvania will go through a little ceremony as they venture across the state's boundaries under a novel safety program believed without precedent which may be adopted as a works program, it was learned today.

The innovation, the "Brain Child" of Capt. Wilson C. Price, superintendent of the state highway patrol, would consist of stopping all foreign state cars as they entered Pennsylvania to advise the driver of the provisions of the vehicular laws here.

It would also aid the current "See Pennsylvania First" campaign of the Department of Highways by pointing out to tourists the scenic wonders of the state.

Awaits Approval

The program will be submitted to the federal government as a "White Collar" project under the new Works Progress Administration probably within a day or two, Price said. It will be launched immediately if given approval which he confidently predicted.

"We are forced to arrest tremendous number of out-of-state motorists for traffic violation simply because of their lack of knowledge of Pennsylvania's laws," Price explained.

The visiting motorist, according to Price, many times is not acquainted with speed traps in this state with the result that often he is easy prey.

"While Pennsylvania's highways are well marked as to directions or signs to advise tourists, the rate of speed at which they may legally drive is not designated on the open highways, thus bringing the state into bad repute with visiting motorists," he said.

Instructors At Borders

Under the proposal hundreds of "Stop" signs will be erected on the edge of arterial highways 50 yards within the state's borders. Out-of-state motorists, Price said, would then be given cards of pamphlets containing Pennsylvania's driving requirements. "White Collar" workers in civilian clothes would be the instructors.

No great expense would be incurred because "stop" signs can be borrowed from the highways department without cost, according to Price. "This is a safety measure as well as a convenience to the out-of-state motorists," Price added. "Pennsylvania is more or less a mecca for tourists so this procedure would also aid them in avoiding circuitous routes while hunting scenery in this state."

SEEK ACCORD ON NEW TAX MEASURE

come and graduated corporation taxes proposed by Mr. Roosevelt.

A poll showed they were virtually unanimous in favoring a graduated excess profits tax instead of a graduated corporation income tax as urged by the president.

In an effort to avoid a split, the committee may impose a graduated corporation income tax within narrow limits, and then base the chief tax an excess profits.

The proposal was advanced as a means of preserving the principle advocated by the president. Chairman Doughton (D) of North Carolina, said the president was strongly in favor of the graduated tax principle.

Conservative Bloc Scores

The "conservative" bloc in the committee scored a victory when it was decided not to require payment of inheritance tax as income tax. This, it was believed, virtually disposed of the possibility of inheritance tax schedules designed to raise $600,000,000 to $700,000,000 a year. A schedule estimated to raise $728,000,000 is before the committee.

An inheritance tax schedule raising from $25,000,000 to $93,000,000 a year was indicated. Schedules before the committee call for inheritance taxes ranging from three percent above $50,000 to 75 percent over $10,000,000 to produce these sums.

A smaller tax on widows, sons and daughters than on other relatives also was expected to be adopted.

The committee tentatively approved a provision exempting bequests to charitable and religious institutions from the tax.

Republicans were again barred from the committee meeting today, as the Democrats sought to reach a complete, tentative agreement before formally reporting the tax bill.

REMARKS COST

ISABELLA $10.00

Frank Isabella, East Washington street, was fined $10.00 in police court today after he was alleged to have used indecent remarks to young people at Jackson park. According to Isabella's testimony the children were bothering him and when he made the remarks they were heard by a woman in the neighborhood. She notified police and he was arrested.

He was handicapped in his effort at restoring normal conditions by the fact that the Terre Haute Star, the only morning newspaper, failed to publish an edition for the first time since it was founded in 1903.

Deaths of the Day

Robert S. Atkinson.

One of Lawrence County's pioneer citizens, Robert Stephen Atkinson, 75, died Monday afternoon at five o'clock, following a complication of diseases for the past three months. Death occurred in the homestead on the Youngstown Road where Mr. Atkinson has lived all his life.

He was the son of pioneers, William and Harriet McClung Atkinson who settled in Union Township many years ago. The deceased was born January 11, 1860 in house but a few yards away from the home in which he died.

Eleven children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Hartland, five of whom are living. They are William and David N., of Buffalo, N. Y., Joseph H., and Benjamin of New Castle and Mrs. Frank F. McNamara of Miami, Fla.

The viscidities of sixty years of married life have rested lightly upon this unusual couple. Mrs. Hartland has the same outlook upon life as she had when as a young woman she sailed for these shores. Both of them are enjoying fair health and look good to observe many more anniversaries.

Together they have seen New Castle develop and in the development of the city they have had their share, Mr. Hartland as a master brick mason and Mrs. Hartland as the mother of a fine respectable family.

There was no formal celebration of the happy event as they did not wish to have "any fuss" as Mrs. Hartland puts it. Quietly they have observed the occasion and hundreds of friends have dropped in to wish them many more anniversaries.

On April 6, 1882 he was married to Miss Emma J. Cornelius who survives him. In addition to the widow the following children survive him: Mabel Pearl Atkinson, at home; Jesse C. Atkinson, Canton, O., Mrs. Wyly D. Cooper, New Bedford, Mrs. Elizabeth J. White, Washington, D. C. Twelve grandchildren also survive him, and one brother, James T. Atkinson of Union township and Mrs. Nancy Lanhorn of New Castle.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday at the residence, with Dr. G. S. Bennett, pastor of the First Christian church, in charge.

The merchants decided to open tomorrow.

Declares Martial Law

Governor Paul V. McNutt yesterday had issued a proclamation declaring martial law in Terre Haute and in Vigo county.

Meanwhile Charles L. Richardson, conciliator for the Federal Department of Labor, who flew here from Washington, attempted to settle the strike of the 400 employees of the Columbia Company.

There were reports that he would propose the Toledo plan of joint employer-employee consideration of labor problems but Richardson with a laugh professed to be ignorant of the principles of the Toledo plan.

YOUNG-COX WEDDING IN EPWORTH CHURCH

Gowned in a white mouseline de soie, fashioned simply, with a white bridal cap and short veil, and carrying a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley, Mary Rutherford Young, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Leaf Young, of 734 East Washington street, was a lovely bride this morning, for her wedding to Dr. Paul Albert Cox, of Lancaster, Pa., son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther E. Cox, of Quarryville, Pa.

Epworth M. E. church was the scene of the ceremony, at 11 o'clock, the Rev. J. A. Galbraith, D.D., pastor, officiating, with the assistance of the Rev. Earl Fox Rahn, of the Church of the Incarnation, Philadelphia. Several hundred guests were present, many of them coming from Brownsburg, Quarryville, Sharon, Ellwood City, Latrobe, Connellsburg, Philadelphia, Lancaster, and Jeannette, Pa.

The bride came down the aisle, on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. Miss Ruth Galbraith played the Lohengrin "Bridal Chorus" for the processional. "In a Monastery Garden" followed, for the usual exchange of vows which were heard at the altar, prettily decorated with a profusion of palms and ferns.

Bridesmaids were two of the bride's sisters, Misses Jane E. Young, and Kay Ann Young, both of whom wore delicate blue crepe and mouseline de soie frocks, with large leghorn hats trimmed in blue velvet. They carried arm bouquets of black eyed susans and yellow roses.

Ellsworth LeRoy Cox, of Lancaster, Pa., served the groom as best man, and the ushers were Clayton Freemont Swickard, of Mercer, Pa., and Russell Davis Young.

Mrs. Young, mother of the bride, appeared in a beautiful light blue crepe gown, with which a shoulder bouquet of Johanna Hill roses harmonized. Mrs. Cox, the bridegroom's mother, chose navy blue crepe, with Johanna Hill roses for a shoulder bouquet.

Miss Galbraith played Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" for the recessional. Shortly after leaving the church, the happy couple departed on a wedding trip, expecting to spend the next two weeks at a summer cottage along the Jersey shore. Later, they will motor through New England states, before going on to Lancaster county where

TIGERS AUXILIARY EVENT AT CASCADE

The cool grove of Cascade Park Monday evening, members of the Tigers Auxiliary, about 35 in number, spent a most enjoyable evening. The event was a hamburg fry which was a decided success.

After spending sometime hiking through picturesque spots of the park, the women assembled in the grove and did justice to hundreds of hamburgers. The committee included Mrs. George Ross, Mrs. Joseph Bordone, Mrs. Charles Augustine, Mrs. Florence General, Mrs. Josephine Copple, Mrs. Louis Gasper.

Winners in three athletic events, Mrs. Grace Soto, Mrs. Frank Ross, Mrs. George Ross. The remainder of the evening was spent in the Rainbow Terrace pavilion, where the club members danced to the melodious strains of the park orchestra.

In a few weeks the club will journey to Cascade for a sunrise breakfast. Mrs. Grace Soto, of Superior street, will entertain the club on Monday, August 5.

SILVER ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Cross, who were married 25 years ago, celebrated their silver wedding anniversary at their beautiful home on the New Castle-Ellwood road.

Mr. and Mrs. Cross are the parents of 7 children and one grandchild all of whom participated in the anniversary event. The guests also included about 50 relatives and friends and all spent a very enjoyable evening. Music and chat were the main features.

At a seasonable hour Mary Etta Diana and Mrs. Thomas White, assisted by Dorothy Cross and Thelma White, served dainty refreshments.

The honored couple received many lovely gifts in remembrance of the happy occasion.

De-La-Kard-Klub Breakfast

Bright and early Sunday morning members of the De-La-Kard-Klub journeyed to Cascade Park where they enjoyed a breakfast outing in the picnic grove. An appetizing menu was served at 8 o'clock with covers marking for club members and one guest, Charlotte Carr. Later a period of swimming was enjoyed occupying the balance of the day.

The regular meeting of the club will be held Wednesday, July 24, at the home of Mary Virginia Armstrong, Garfield avenue.

WEDDING NEWS TOLD AT J. F. F. CLUB PARTY

Last evening, members of the J. F. F. club were entertained delightfully in the home of Ellen McGowan, Lyndale street, the occasion being a medium of announcing the coming marriage of the hostess sister, Elizabeth, to Emmett Donegan, which proved a surprise to those gathered, as it was supposedly to be their regular club session.

The news was cleverly revealed when all had assembled about the dining room table, on tiny red hearts found on the arms of dainty doll favors marking the guests places, which read "Elizabeth and Emmett, August 20, 1935." These were dropped from streamers attached to the chandelier, in hues of green and white, making a most attractive setting. Other details were carried out in the same color scheme, which too, combined the nuptial idea. The tasty menu was served by the hostess, assisted by another sister, Margaret, and two others, Mary Agnes and Katherine Coyne.

The earlier hours were devoted to bridge, the honor score favors being captured by Mary Sullivan and Ethel Donegan. A short business discussion ensued, and plans were completed for an all day outing to take place Sunday at Millcreek Park in Youngstown, O. Their next regular meeting will be an event of two weeks at the residence of Ethel Donegan on Leisure avenue.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McGowan of Lyndale street, and Mr. Dagnon is the son of Mrs. Anna Dagnon, Moore avenue, this city. Both are popular among the younger set here, and news of their coming marriage is of interest to a wide circle of friends.

MANY GUESTS ATTEND SILVER ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bumbulucz celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday, July 21, with an elegant dinner event in their home on Scott street.

Following, at 2 o'clock, until 7, a large reception was held for scores of friends who called to extend felicitations. The home was attractively decorated for the occasion with pretty flowers and the guests or honor were the recipients of lovely gifts to commemorate the happy anniversary.

Guests were present from Youngstown, Sharon, Cleveland, Homestead, Hubbard, Farrell, Sharpsville and Pittsburgh. L. Szavars, a representative of the Hungarian newspaper in the latter city and his family being among them.

Rev. Howard Sammon officiated at the ceremony at 8 o'clock, which took place in St. Columba's church before a large assemblage of friends and relatives.

Mrs. James V. Hanley attended the bride as matron of honor. Marcus Kilch was best man, and Robert Hanley, brother of the bride and William Melody were altar boys. Wayne McEvey was soloist, Mrs. Helen Hartly Clark playing his accompaniment in addition to beautiful nuptial melodies.

A wedding reception and breakfast followed, the young couple departing a little later for a honeymoon in Cleveland and Detroit. They will live at 251 Dennick avenue, Youngstown, upon their return.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Kilch are graduates of Raven high school, and the bride is a popular member of the Junior Drama league. Mr. Kilch is a member of the Septime club.

MISS SILVERMAN TO STUDY IN EUROPE

Miss Lena Silverman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Silverman of 213 East Wallace avenue, left this morning for New York from where she will sail on July 31 for Europe to study music.

Miss Silverman will be enrolled at the Leitzig Conservatory, and she will remain there for a period of two years. She will sail on The Washington.

1935 Club

At the home of Mrs. Geneva Emery, on Crawford avenue, Monday evening, the 1935 club spent a pleasant evening with needlework and chat. There were two club guests, Mrs. Violet Slack and Mrs. Mildred Reynolds, and Mrs. Amy McCreary aided the hostess in serving an attractively appointed lunch.

On Wednesday, August 7, the girls will have a picnic at one of the cottages near Volant.

Concludes Visit

Wilbur Houk left Sunday evening for Detroit, concluding a two weeks' visit with relatives in this city. After spending a few days in Detroit, he will go to Chicago to visit another sister, Mrs. Carl Dockman, and then continue to California, where he has been located for several years. He is a former local resident.

COX FAMILIES HAVE IMPROMPTU GATHERING

Over the week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert A. Cox, Sr., of Maitland Lane, Walmo, entertained the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cox, of Willshire, O., and sister and brother-in-law and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Shaw and sons Brice and Jack, of Mansfield, Pa. The gathering was most informal, both families making the trip unexpectedly.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cox were accompanied here by their eldest grandson, Gilbert, Jr., who has been vacationing at Willshire for several weeks. The former returned to his Ohio home, while Mrs. Cox made the trip back to Mansfield with her daughter to visit the remainder of the week. On Sunday she will return to New Castle for a couple weeks' stay at her son's home at Walmo. They were former residents of this city. While here the group enjoyed a swimming party at Cascade Park.

SIXTY MILES TOO FAST

NOT infrequently men who profess to speak with authority on the subject of the perils of motor travel decry the importance of excessive speed as a factor in producing fatal accidents on the highways. They draw a distinction between speed and reckless driving and attribute the prevalent dangers of the road to the incompetent and irresponsible operation of cars.

Impressive refutations of the theory are advanced, however, by Governor Hoffman, of New Jersey, who is qualified to discuss the subject authoritatively, and also by State Motor Vehicle Commissioner John A. Harnett, of New York. "The faster motor vehicles are moving," Mr. Harnett concludes, "the more serious the result if an accident occurs." The logic of this statement is undeniable.

Few drivers, Governor Hoffman says, writing in the American Magazine, "are either physically or emotionally equipped" to drive at sixty miles an hour. A mile a minute at night is folly and the drunken driver "presents a menace which beggars words."

The most important of the governor's declarations, however, is his unequivocal statement that "the vast majority of fatal accidents are caused by speeds too high for the surrounding conditions." Furthermore, he proves mathematically, on the basis of experiments with the operation of brakes at all speeds and under all conditions, that with every slight pressure on the accelerator the dangers to human life are multiplied.

And, after all, what does it profit a driver to gain five minutes at the risk of one or more lives?

HENPECKED HUSBANDS AND HYSTERICS

What makes women hysterical? After long ages in which this question has remained unanswered, Dr. Giehm, of the Zepernick Sanatorium in Germany, comes forward with the information that "as a rule, only women who have their husbands completely under their thumbs are hysterical."

This startling discovery may bring a measure of solace into the bleak lives of henpecked men, but it is remarkably unsatisfying. What, after all, is (or are) hysterics, and to what degree must a husband be henpecked before his wife falls victim to the mysterious malady?

Dr. Giehm has decided that really henpecked husbands are "over-sensitive, weak, shy persons, who, fearing the bright light, prefer to live always in the shadow."

If so, doubtless the unfortunate wives of these gentlemen are entitled to all the hysterics they can mobilize. Or might it be that these shy husbands prefer to live always in the shadow only because their wives monopolize the bright light? Are henpecked men a cause or an effect? Clearly there is need for further inquiry into this perplexing problem.

YOUTH AND CRIME

During the first quarter of the year more than 90,000 cases were examined by the Bureau of Investigation at Washington which finds that persons at the age of 19 are setting the crime pace in the country. The number arrested at the age of 19 in the period studied exceeds the number in any other age group, and more than 56 per cent of the total number arrested were under the age of 30.

The claim frequently made that the larger portion of crime is the work of hardened criminals is not supported by the statistics compiled by the bureau which present a grave situation confronting the nation.

While the department of justice is rounding up and prosecuting criminals, most of them with long records in crime, a new condition is presented which commands attention. The young just starting out must be cared for in a different manner, if their careers are to be cut short and their steps directed in right paths. The most that could be done to influence them in the right direction would be to give them employment which is the outstanding feature of the government's program.

MR. DEEN FIGHTS AND LOSES

The country is prepared to sympathize with Representative Braswell Deen, of the Eighth Georgia district, who made a great fight in a worthy cause and lost. Mr. Deen wanted to go home to his farm in Appling county. The summer is passing swiftly and he is missing the delights it offers down around the homestead—the human contacts, the sight of the crops and the stock, the fishing and loafing and the other factors that lend to the season so much of its appeal.

Mr. Deen, in short, longs for his house and home and people and is everlastingly tired of life in congress and work in Washington. His speech touched every heart, most of them sick for home, but a stern sense of duty prevailed.

In consequence, congress will continue to muddle through and that farm in Georgia, with the trout stream hard by and fields and orchards giving forth the fruits of the earth, will continue to loom before the starved eyes of the representative from the Eighth district as a mirage that beckons to a weary desert traveler.

ONE WAY TO HARVEST THE GRAIN

While fields were ripe for the harvest the laborers were few out in the Middle West grain country. An actual labor shortage existed where once the roads and "rods" blossomed with migrant individualists seeking work for honest pay and farm-cooked fare.

Rust threatened bumper crops while local relief treasures were burdened with providing more abundant life to those preferring not to persevere in the fields at a mere pre-war wage.

"Soft relief living" was held responsible for this situation. So men were ordered off relief rolls for refusing jobs in Minnesota that paid no more than they got for doing nothing, and fourteen Iowa counties have pried all employable loose from relief rolls, virtually suspending work relief until September, when billowing crops of grain and hay will be in.

Stern measures, perhaps, but they show that after all there are ways to get work done.

A wife is a person who lets you tell it and then she tells it right.

You can tell a good citizen. If the police pick him up, he doesn't know the right people to get him out.

No wonder! Loss of sleep dulls the mind, and all decision in a crisis are made by statesmen who have lost sleep.

SPEEDERS DESERVE LITTLE OFFICIAL CONSIDERATION

The person who drives his automobile the fastest usually has the least demand upon his time.

He has little to do when he reaches his destination.

Therefore, there is no reason for hurry.

Study the faces of many of those whom you see speeding and you will reach the conclusion that their physiognomy often indicates a subnormal intelligence.

There are occasions when mentally well-balanced persons may drive fast; possibly, at times, recklessly.

But this indicates undue excitement or pressure for time.

However, sensible men do not jeopardize their own lives and those of others merely to appear a thirst for speed.

The scatter-brained driver does not think of safety.

Some men can be fast and unusually safe drivers at the same time.

They do not speed unless they see a clear, straight road ahead, with few crossings and comparatively little traffic.

As they near danger points, they slow down and use better control.

Speeders, usually irresponsibles, should be given little consideration by officers and court officials.

There must be fewer speeders before automobile accidents can be reduced.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

JUST A REMNANT:

"This," said the amateur art enthusiast, pointing with great pride to a small picture on the wall, "is a specimen I obtained very cheaply at a sale. It's a genuine Rembrandt, and it's actually worth about four times the price I paid for it."

His guest who was extremely vague about matters connected with art, gasped.

"Great Scott," he exclaimed, "you don't really say so! I've seen those Rembrandt sales advertised, but all my wife ever gets at 'em is bits of silk and ribbon."

WORTHWHILE THINGS

It is not fame, or gold, or lands that make this world a happy place.

It is not that which wealth commands

That lights with joy the human face.

But it is just the common things—

A cheery word, a nod, a smile;

A hand outstretched, a laugh that rings—

That make this life worthwhile.

It is not buildings towering high that make this earth a lovely place;

No man-made walls against the sky can hold true beauty's lasting grace.

But it is nature's simple things,

God-given, void of human style.

A tree, a flower, a bird that sings.

That make this life worthwhile.

It is not much that we can do

Perhaps, in all the daily stress,

To make earth's fondest dreams come true.

And spread the light of happiness—but as our pilgrim ways we mount,

We'll learn the value of a smile;

And that tis little things that count To make this life worthwhile.

WASHINGTON, July 23—One can only guess at the motives of Chairman John J. O'Connor of the house of representatives' rules committee, in the fashion in which he is directing his committee's investigation of lobbying in congress.

Politicians do guess, however; not a few of them guess that O'Connor is trying to convict the White House, rather than the "interests", of lobbying.

Chairman Hugo L. Black of the senate's special lobby-investigating committee, on the opposite hand, unquestionably is trying to convict the "interests", rather than the White House.

NO DOUBT OF LOBBY

There is no doubt that the "interests" lobby.

They have a right to tell legislators what they want, and to point out the merits of their desires, if there are any.

Maybe they have no right to "bring pressure"—to warn legislators that they (the "interests") will try to beat them for re-election if they vote unsatisfactorily to the "interests", but will do their best to keep them in office if they vote satisfactorily. Still, the legislators know it, anyway.

For an "interest" to offer a tangible reward to a legislator for his vote is, of course, unethical. If ever they did, the "interests" no longer offer such obvious rewards as to make them outright illegal. It is certain, however, that many legislators are given to understand that he will benefit, in the long run, by having a friendly "interest" back of him.

It is safe to say that Senator Black will not make out any cases of unmistakable bribery. Nor does he expect to. His idea is to prove that legislators have been "improperly influenced", or, at least, that it has been attempted. The expression is a little vague, but potent politically.

O'CONNOR'S EVIDENT PURPOSE

Representative O'Connor's purpose appears to be to demonstrate, not so much that the "interests" haven't been exceedingly active, but to convince the public that the White House has been even more active than the "interests".

O'Connor, like Black, is Democratically labeled.

But Black is an administration Democrat. While O'Connor is not awfully in revolt against the administration, he gives very much that impression.

REPUBLICANS DO NOT COUNT

Now, the Republican members of congress are not a factor in this particular equation.

They are so far outnumbered that they scarcely signify in either chamber. With the exception of two or three progressives they are quite aware that they have no favors to hope for from the administration; that it will try to beat them at the polls at the 1936 election.

Democrats are different: They have hopes and fears, both.

If they're "good" they reckon that they may get federal relief allowances for their states and districts, strengthening them with their constituents; they reckon that the appointments they recommend will be made, strengthening them from a patronage standpoint; they may even think or places on the federal bench or in the court of claims or on some important commission, for themselves.

Conversely, suppose they're "bad"; the administration already has so large a congressional majority that it can afford the loss or the seats of a few rambunctious Democrats. What if it withdraws support from them—to teach all hands a lesson?

BATTING EACH OTHER

Isn't it evident, then, why Representative O'Connor's committee is in rivalry with Senator Black's committee?

Senator Black, a pro-administrationist, is trying to "pin something" on the administration's adverse critics. Representative O'Connor, an administrationistic insurgent, is trying to make it appear that the administration is worse than its critics.

The Republicans look on, as spectators, hoping for a Kilkenny-cat decision.

Mercer-Grove City Road Open Soon

GROVE CITY, July 23.—The last concrete will be poured on the Grove City-Mercer road today, officials of the contracting company announce. It is expected to open the road to traffic early in August.

The resurfacing job will leave a stretch of approximately two miles of macadam road between the concrete on the Mercer end and the Grove City end.

Opening of the road to travel will eliminate a dangerous, winding detour on which accidents have been frequent for the past two months.

GROVE CITY, July 23—Demands that traffic be safeguarded by "Stop" signs at the London intersection of two secondary roads, near here, were renewed today as the result of another serious crash at this danger point. On Saturday, two cars collided, sending 12 persons to hospitals for treatment.

Eight occupants of one machine, all injured in degrees ranging from slight to serious, were brought to the Osteopathic hospital here. Four were discharged after receiving first aid, and four others are still under treatment. The injured motorists in the other machine were taken to the Mercer Cottage hospital.

Dan Hedglin, 32, of near Grove City, the driver; his sister, May, 13; daughter Elizabeth May, 8, and Betty May Coast, 10, of Grove City, were more seriously hurt, with severe lacerations. Released after treatment were Mrs. Dan Hedglin; son Herbert, 6; Mrs. Lewis Hedglin, mother of the driver, and John H. Hedglin, his brother.

The London intersection of the Butler-Mercer Pike and the Leesburg-Grove City road, is marked only by warning signs. Three serious accidents have occurred here in the past month.

GROVE CITY, July 23—Grove City faces a housing shortage that may result in a substantial building boom in the spring of next year.

With announcement that the Mt. Vernon, O., plant of the Cooper-Bessemer Corporation would be closed, and all shop operations transferred to Grove City, a survey was made which showed that only about 25 rental properties are listed.

Not all of these are in good condition, and many are occupied by relief families, some of whom have been notified to vacate. There have been no indications of an advance in rents.

Estimates of the number of families coming here from Mt. Vernon range from 35 to 100, within the next four months. The influx has been slight, as yet, and Cooper-Bessemer officials will make no statements.

The next session of the Superior court will convene on the first Monday.

Plans Progress For Old Timers Annual Picnic

Costume Pageant Will Again Be Big Feature Of Gathering At Cascade Park

OLD TIME MUSIC WILL BE FURNISHED

With preliminary arrangements well in hand indications point to one of the greatest gatherings ever held by descendants of the pioneer families of Lawrence county at the annual Old Timer's Day picnic at Cascade park, August 14.

The big feature of the picnic this year will be the old time costume pageant, which was inaugurated last year, and which proved to be a tremendous success.

Costumes were dug out of secret hiding places, which had been handed down from one generation to another, costumes which in their day were the last word in style, and which drew much favorable comment.

In Charge Of Pageant

President Ralph M. Campbell has announced the appointment of Mrs. Effie Peebles Kirk as chairman of the Pageant committee, and invitations have already been sent out by Mrs. Kirk to all who participated in the pageant last year, asking them to enroll again, and to wear the costumes they displayed last year. It is expected that more than a hundred will take part.

Arrangements have been made to register all who will appear in the pageant at the main office at Cascade park, where dressing rooms will be provided for those who wish to change their costume after they arrive at the park.

Mrs. Elsa Von Moltke Emery will have charge of the music and will assemble a group of musicians who will play the old time airs which were familiar years ago. An expert figure caller has also been enlisted to call the figures for the old time dances.

Announcement of the complete list of committees and further arrangements for the day will be announced by President Campbell later.

Farm Prices Show Drop Since May

HARRISBURG—The index of prices paid farmers for important products declined two points between May 15 and June 15, according to the monthly survey conducted by the Federal-State Crop Reporting Service. A four-point drop occurred in the index for the entire country.

Gains were reported in the farm price of buckwheat, apples, hams, veal calves, lambs, mules, and wool. However, these gains were more than offset by slight losses in all other groups.

The index of prices paid by farmers for commodities purchased remained unchanged during the month.

Charges Earle Has Disregarded Pledge To People

Rep. Hoopes, Socialist Of Berks County, Makes Attack On Governor Earle Today

(International News Service)

READING, Pa., July 23.—Rep. Darlington Hoopes, Socialist of Berks, branded Gov. George H. Earle's action in slashing the legislative appropriation of $40,000,000 for old age pensions to $19,880,000 as a repudiation of a campaign pledge.

The chief executive reduced the appropriation because the legislature failed to provide for a state lottery to raise the amount.

Hoopes, who was largely responsible for the house's action in approving the larger sum, charged the governor "has betrayed the aged of Pennsylvania."

Thousands who misplaced confidence in him will die before they receive paltry benefits provided by the present law," he said, "and we who fought for increase must continue explaining why some receive assistance while others equally qualified do not."

"With typical old party disregard for platform pledges, Gov. Earle has cut the appropriation spite of the fact the seventh plank of the Democratic 1934 platform advocated individual economic security through adequate old age pensions."

Police chronology for 24 hours ending at 3:30 p. m. July 22, three arrests on charges as follows: Drunkenness 2 and Soliciting aims 1.

Vandalism which for several months affected only city property has spread to gardens the latest uncalled for act having been the uprooting of vegetables in a Mable street garden. All of the tomatoes, beans and other vegetables were torn from the ground and laid in a pile. Police will make an effort to capture the vandals.

Upon recommendation of City Solicitor Robert White, council has agreed to permit the redemption of the Mike Pradiger property in the Eighth ward. The city sold the lot on January 4, for 1930 taxes. The Home Owners Loan Corporation represented Pradiger.

During the past few nights people have been complaining that radios are played too loud when they want to sleep. A cruiser car operator was detailed to investigate such an occurrence Sunday night which recalls that some years ago a complaint was made about engineers blowing whistles for the Croton Avenue crossing.

One thousand two hundred and seventy persons violated the parking ordinance last year, according to the report of Mayor Mayne, contained in the booklet put out by the city. Six hundred and five violated traffic rules and 263 were arrested for speeding. Twelve hundred and fifty-nine persons were arrested on charges which involved drunkenness last year.

Lawrence School Reunion Thursday At Cascade Park

All Plans Complete For Gala Picnic Outing Of School To Be Held At Cascade Park

At a committee meeting of the Lawrence school reunion officers and chairman held in the home of Mrs. E. R. Swoger, East Long avenue last evening, plans were completed for their annual picnic outing to take place Thursday of this week, in the grove of Cascade Park.

It will be in the form of a basket affair, with the menu to be served at 6:30 o'clock, and coffee being provided by the committee in charge, headed by Mrs. Alice Young.

Her aides will be Mrs. Schooley, Mrs. Carrie Stokes, Mrs. Isaac Lewellyn, Mary and Jane Zarilla.

All pupils who attended Lawrence school from 1900 to 1919 are cordially invited to attend this occasion, which is open to their families as well.

A program has been arranged by the sports committee, that will interest guests of all ages. Prizes will be awarded the various winners. Those in charge of this part of the entertainment, includes Mrs. Margaret Davis, chairman, Rebecca Nicku, Archie Stuart, Willie Duncho and Melvina Davies.

State's Postal Clerks End Convocation; Johnson Is Honored

Delegates to the annual convention of the Pennsylvania Federation of Post Office Clerks, sessions of which closed at Conneaut Lake Park last night, elected Samuel P. Berger, of Reading, to the federation's presidency for 1935-36, succeeding Thomas L. Donegan, clerk at the New Castle post office.

Donegan and Howard C. Miller, Erie, were named as delegates of the federation to the national clerks' convention later in the year.

Albert L. Johnson, president during the past year of the Pennsylvania Federation of Rural Letter Carriers, was named first vice president of the organization for the coming year. The presidency post was given to Ralph Rose of Somerset.

Mrs. Obert Keating, Scranton, was named to head the auxiliary of the clerks while Mrs. E. M. Paxton, Stroudsburg, was named president of the newly organized auxiliary of the rural postmen.

The elections brought to a close the week end sessions of the state clerks and three other allied postal organizations.

South Dakota Compelled To Force Acceptance Of Harvesting Work

PIERRE, S. D., July 23.—Nineteen thousand heads of families were removed from South Dakota relief rolls today in a drastic move to force them to seek employment in the harvest fields.

Spurred by farmer's complaints that dole recipient had declined to go to work gathering grain, officials ordered a suspension of all state and federal relief until the shortage of farm labor is fully supplied.

Joining six other midwestern states that have taken similar though less sweeping measures to insure adequate help during the harvest, Deputy Welfare Commissioner Philip L. Ketchum sent notices to all county relief directors in South Dakota.

Washington, July 23.—A warning that "any person on relief who refuses a job will be cut off immediately" came today from Lawrence Westbrook, assistant relief administrator.

Commenting on the action of South Dakota relief officials, Westbrook said:

YOUTHFUL SLAYER PAYS DEATH PENALTY

Russell Swiger
Dies In Chair

Is Executed For Murder Of Filling Station Attendant
In Ohio

GETS LAST MINUTE
LETTER FROM GIRL

(International News Service)

COLUMBUS, O., July 23.—They took the body of Russell Swiger, 21-year-old murderer, back to Zanesville, O., today for burial in the town where on Sept. 24, 1934 he killed Harold Fleming, 19, a filling station attendant, because a stick-up netted him only $14.

Swiger, who turned evangelist in death row, died in the electric chair at Ohio's penitentiary last night after delivering an amazing "sermon" to official witnesses. Society, the warden and guards who adjusted the electrodes, forgave, likewise Gov. Martin L. Davey, who turned down his plea for executive clemency.

Shows Religious Fervor

Carried away by religious fervor, Swiger stood upright before the chair and for five minutes lectured the witnesses.

"Gentlemen," he began, "you'll see the greatest miracle you have ever seen performed here tonight. I'm coming back in body and soul."

Of solace in his last few hours was a telegram Swiger received Monday afternoon from Grace Mitchell, Pittsburgh radio singer whom the slayer adored. Guards said it read:

"My spirit is with you. I'm praying for you."

It was to obtain funds to finance a trip to Pittsburgh to court Miss Mitchell that Swiger claimed he robbed the Zanesville filling station shooting Fleming in cold blood when he wrathfully discovered only $14 in the till.

September

Last night in the employees room of the New Castle Electric Street Railway Company the New Castle Stamp club convened for their regular session.

Following the business portion of the meeting a stamp map of Africa was displayed by Earnest Crawford. Mr. Crawford also had on exhibition a set of one stamp from each of the British Colonies celebrating the silver jubilee of King George. A complete set of these stamps from all of the colonies consists of about 267. No one in New Castle has yet secured a complete set of these stamps. Additional stamps were displayed by George Ramsey.

The club was fortunate in having it two out of town guests, L. W. McDanel and Kermit Edgar both of Beaver Falls, Pa. Mr. McDanel is the president of the Beaver County Philatelic society and a member of the New Castle club. He gave the club rather a lengthy talk on the activities of the club and along certain lines of collecting. Mr. McDanel also exhibited a great number of stamps and his visit was very much appreciated by the New Castle members.

It was decided to suspend with meetings of the club during the remainder of the summer and to begin to hold meetings during the month of September, the date to be announced later.

Seriously Hurt

Quirino Rosati, Aged 56, South
Jefferson Street, In Meadville Hospital

Quirino Rosati, aged about 56, of 216 South Jefferson street, was seriously injured, late Sunday evening, in Meadville, Pa., when he stepped from the curb, between two parked automobiles, and walked in front of the path of a passing vehicle.

He was immediately rushed to the Spencer hospital, Meadville, where he received treatment for a fractured nose, injuries about the forehead, and a possible fracture of the skull. An X-ray will be taken to determine whether or not the local man sustained a fractured skull.

Mr. Rosati was visiting in Mead-ville.

CAUTION GROWERS ON SPRAY RESIDUE

HARRISBURG—Orchardists who expect to market fruit from sprayed trees this year are being advised by the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture that their fruit must be free of spray residue in injurious amounts. Agents of the Department plan to visit fruit growing regions of the Commonwealth for the purpose of checking on the amount of spray residue contained on fruits which are to be offered for sale.

For summer apples, samples will be taken just prior to picking time and for fall and winter apples, samples will be taken after Septem-ber 1.

wrong. Mr. Fish called it socialistic. Mr. Sinclair said President Roosevelt was trying to do what he, Sinclair, meant to do, but was going at it foolishly, "manicuring the highways."

MR. FISH, for whom all is for the best, in the best possible of world's, said "Socialism always fails."

That depends on your definition of Socialism. If you define it, "an effort to improve social conditions," it need not necessarily fail. Once public schools were considered dangerous Socialism, using taxes to build public parks, and spending public money for free hospitals and insane asylums, were considered pure Socialism.

If you define Socialism as an attempt to take from the thrifty class what they have accumulated, in accordance with law, and use it to support the shiftless or finance the schemes of impractical dreamers, that kind of Socialism will fail, because foolishness necessarily fails.

MINNESOTA FARMERS cannot find help to harvest the wheat crop because gentlemen prefer relief rolls without real work to work in the hot sun with itchy wheat dust down your back.

Formerly crowds invaded Minnesota for the wheat field work at $2.50 a day.

In Iowa 13 counties will stop various relief aid projects, telling the men to do real work on farms instead of imitation work for the government. In Iowa relief workers, ordered to take $2 on the farms or go without pay, complain of "hardship."

Special Guard Posted At Cell Of New England
Wife Killer

COMPOSITION OF ACCUSED CRACKS

(International News Service)

WORCESTER, Mass., July 23.—A special guard was posted today at the jail cell of Newell Paige Sherman, man when the self-confessed wife killer, his composure cracking, whined for immediate sentence and death in the electric chair.

Jailers quoted him as pleading,

"I want to avoid trial and die at once."

Meanwhile, 17 year old Esther Mae, "unconscious reason" for a quarrel over their child but that didn't mean to do it. He always had tears in his eyes when he talked of her, was a part of the woman's story which began when she left her husband for Jameson on February 11, 1935 and secured a divorce in April.

This tented organization paid its first visit to Pennsylvania last summer creating an excellent impression by the masterfulness of the performance, the wholesomeness of the entertainment and the general air of refinement that surrounded the entire show.

Returning this season with a new mammoth tent, greater seating capacity and an entirely new program headed by Poodles Hanneford and the Hanneford Family of riders, the show is assured a great welcome here.

New equipment, new rolling stock, seats, light plant and many innovations in presentation, still retaining its small admission prices, this circus is the wonder of the tented world.

Performances here will be given at 2 and 8 with the doors opening one hour earlier.

Britain Fears Uprising Of African Blacks

(International News Service)

GENEVA, July 23—Fearing a general uprising of all African blacks in a "holy war" against white superiority, Great Britain is determined to force league of Nations procedure to prevent a conflict even if it means Italian withdrawal from Geneva.

This was the statement made to International News Service by a high league official today as the council prepared to meet within a few days in a final effort to find a common ground for solution of the Italo-Abyssinian crisis.

On the average about 40 out of every 100 eggs set fail to hatch.

FRED PERRY TO MARRY BEAUTY

(International News Service)

LONDON, July 23—After a romantic "elimination round" of stage and screen beauties, Fred Perry, American and English tennis champion, is going to marry Helen Vinson, Hollywood star, next week, the Daily Herald said today.

Perry was formerly engaged to Mary Lawson of the English stage, and later he frequent appearances with Loretta Young linked them in rumor.

Miss Vinson, a Texas girl who was formerly married to Harry Nelson Vickerman, Philadelphia carpet manufacturer, is now in England.

80th Division Vets Will Meet

Annual Reunion Of World War
Division Will Take Place
In Wheeling

(International News Service)
New Castle and Lawrence County will be presented with a large delegation, it is expected, when the 80th Division, one of the crack World War outfit, has its annual reunion in Wheeling, starting on Thursday, August 1. The reunion will last four days.

The first business meeting will convene on August 2, with the chaplain, Rev. Edward A. Wallace, opening with the invocation. Speakers will include H. E. Neumann, senior national vice commander; Mayor Charles F. Schultz of Wheeling; Major General Adelbert Cronkhite, Commander of the 80th Division; A. F. and Col. E. G. Peyton, national commander of the 80th Division Association.

The program on Saturday, is scheduled to close with a midnight "jamboree" following the parade.

Sunday, there will be a military mass at St. Joseph's Cathedral, while in the afternoon, there will be non-sectarian services in Wheeling Park.

COOKSBURG CCC CAMP YOUTH DIES

(International News Service)
BROOKSVILLE, Pa., July 23—Joseph Grossi, 19, Pittsburgh, member of the Cooksburg CCC camp was dead today the victim of an accident that resulted from the desire of fellow camper to have some fun.

While bathing Sunday, Grossi was tossed into the water by his companions. He was pulled out of the water when he lost consciousness and rushed to a hospital where he died of a fractured neck.

IS CHARGED WITH SLAYING WIFE

(Special To The News)

MERCER, July 23.—"He took me walking in the Oakland cemetery where he told me to pick out my tombstone, asking me what kind I wanted, little or big," was one of many sensational statements made here today by Elvira Nicastro, 31, of Farrell the chief Commonwealth witness at the hearing of Pete Jenne, 36-year-old Farrell barber held for the murder of his wife Ida.

Jenne was held for the September sessions without bail by square Thomas McClain following the hearing of this afternoon when the Nicastro woman told of a love affair with Jenne that ended when she went to the police and told of her lover's confession of shooting his wife.

"He said he shot her because of a quarrel over their child but that didn't mean to do it. He always had tears in his eyes when he talked of her," was a part of the woman's story which began when she left her husband for Jameson on February 11, 1935 and secured a divorce in April.

"He was a perfect lover until the last two months," continued the woman. Jenne was arrested at the time of the shooting but later released for want of evidence. Since telling her story to the police the woman has been held as a material witness at the Mercer County hospital. Mrs. John Pastore, mother of the murdered woman and her brother Carmon testified to facts the night of the shooting.

Guards Surround Aqua Caliente Gambling Resort

(International News Service)

TIJUANA, Mex., July 23.—As delegates from labor unions here were enroute to Mexico City today bearing protests to the anti-gambling edict of President Lazaro Cardenas, guards surrounded the padlocked $10,000-a-day Aqua Caliente Spa and thousands of employees were leaving the grounds, their belongings under their arms.

Officials of Aqua Caliente, after announcing the entire resort would close down, added they would take no official part in the protests. Armed with data to show that 15,000 Mexicans will be without support if the edict remains, leaders in the border city were hopeful the president might relent. The delegates will meet the secretary of labor and call on the president.

ACCIDENT VICTIMS LEAVE HOSPITAL

Two persons brought to the Jameson Memorial hospital yesterday, following injuries in automobile accidents, have been discharged from the Jameson Memorial hospital.

Warren Bartley, of Pittsburgh, who was admitted following a crash on the Youngstown road, was found to have no bones broken and only minor bruises.

Miss Sally Roeder of Allentown, who sustained a dislocation of the left knee, left the hospital last evening.

Cardinals Advance To

PIRATES DEFEAT PHILLIES AGAIN

By PAT ROBINSON
International News Service
Sports Writer

—NEW YORK, July 23.—Frankie Frisch pulled a fast one on Bill Terry yesterday and as a result Frankie's six minute eggs—the Cardinals—are a mere half game behind the Giants today.

The field was so rain-soaked the tarpaulins were not removed even for field practice. Frisch insisted on playing despite a small attendance because he knew Terry would have to rely on Hal Schuwaucher who had only two days rest.

The wisdom of Frankie's move was shown when his rough and ready crew piled into Prince Hall for 10 hits and eight runs in three innings. In the face of this imposing handicap the Giants fought gamely to amass 11 hits and five runs of Wild Bill Hallahan but this was not enough.

Cubs Lose

In a few short weeks the Giants have seen their nine-game lead whittled to a point where the Cards can pass them by taking today's doubleheader.

The Cubs, at least, gained nothing by the Giants' defeat for the Dodgers knocked them off, 14-13, in the woosiest game of the season.

The Braves halted their losing streak at 15 straight by knocking over the Reds, 4-2, and Ben Cantwell who had 14 consecutive personal losses got credit for the victory although he was not around at the finish.

Pirates Win

And the Pirates rallied to top the Phils, 5-4. Bush, who replaced Blanton in the eighth, was credited with the decision.

Rain halted that long awaited crucial series between the Yanks and Tigers but they'll have it at it in a double bill today.

Meanwhile, the White Sox took advantage of their idleness to pick up a game on both by knocking over the A's 12-3. Whitehead outlasted five Mackian pitchers and his boss Jimmy Dykes—enlivened the proceedings by stealing home.

Wes Ferrell, Merriville for the second day in a row, Sunday his ninth inning pinch homer won a game for Lefty Grove. Yesterday he won his own by hitting another homer in the ninth to give himself a 2-1 triumph over the Browns.

The Indians celebrated Walter Johnson Day in Washington by trimming the Senators, 6-4.

Rose Point Wins
From Slovaks 11-4

Rose Point baseball team handed the Slovaks A. C. a 11 to 4 defeat at the Clifton Flats field last night, with Farrell holding the Slovaks to four hits and fanning 12 of the batters to face him. The Rose Points had eight hits off of Wrona.

Heavy hitting was done by Chabak, Gednick, E. Updegraph, Stutler and Mehalic.

Ryantown To Play Firemen

Good Game Should Materialize
Between West Side
Rivals

One of the best baseball games of the week should materialize at six p. m. today on Avenue field when two rival aggregations of the West Side clash. They are the Firemen and Ryantown. The Firemen have lost only one game since they organized while Ryantown, considering everything, has been playing fairly good ball and making every opponent in the Lawrence county loop hustle to win.

Schedule For City League On Thursday

Golfers Will Have Party Following Matches At Muny Course

With but three more matches to play, the New Castle Golf league is nearing the close of another successful season.

The News golfers will attempt to reduce the lead of the fast-going Conn's who have swept through the season, winning a majority of their games with each team, and the News golfers are faced with no easy task.

Rick-McJunkin will play Johnson-Bronze, while East Side, which is also battling for the lead, takes on Pennsylvania, R. R.

Arrangements have been made for a lunch and program at the close of play Thursday evening, the various team captains having been instructed to inform Course Manager and Pro. W. Arthur Smith of the number who will take part, by Thursday morning.

The schedule follows:

New Castle News vs. Conn's.
Rick-McJunkin v.s. Johnson
Blair Strip Steel vs. Reynolds, S.
Hardware Merchants vs. Shenango Tin,
and O. vs. Gersons, Pennsylvania R. R. vs. East Side.

St. Andrews Top Saks Team 3 To 2

St. Andrews Men's soft ball team handed the Saks a surprise defeat of 3 to 2 last night at Gaston Park woods in a City Soft Ball league game. Bob Pascarella outpitched Warren Dwyer to win the victory. The game was featured by fast fielding on the part of Brooks and Ronine Thomas.

Tonight the St. Andrews team will play the Tin Mill team at Gaston Park (weather permitting). The game will start at 6 o'clock.

NEW YORK, July 23—Ancil Hoffman who cannot possibly know because, after all, he's only the man's manager, informed the writer today that Max Baer, the gentleman with the aching adenoid, is going abroad in October, directly after the Schmeling fight. If it turns out that there is no Schmeling fight, Baer will leave for England in September, although just how Hoffman can know so much about him I cannot say. Tell me that Ancil took a week to find his fighter that last time the latter became temporarily mislaid.

Hand In Shape

"His right hand," said Hoffman, "has completely recovered. His left is still a little swollen but will be ready by that time."

He added that Baer was working out every day but didn't say what he was working out maybe its crossword puzzles. Would Max take on Jack Peterson, the ebullient Englishman? No, that would be too much like getting penalized for unnecessary roughness. He was saving Peterson for Buddy Baer, who is going along.

How about playing the Schmeling engagement off in Europe then?

"In the first place," said he, "I have to see whether Joe Jacobs brings back an agreement this week for a Schmeling-Baer fight here. If he does, we go through. If not, we'll go to England earlier."

However, we won't reach there early enough for the proposed Amsterdam bout between my man and Schmeling. Walter Rothenberg, the promoter, tells me that September 8 will be the latest possible date that the fight can be held in Amsterdam. I forgot to ask him why."

Yesterday the St. Andrews team topped the Rad Juniors 3 to 2, with Pete Guido the star of the game cracking out a Homer with the bases full. Lane gave the losers but five runs.

The Young Kangs have asked that the game with the Radiator Jrs. for Thursday morning be cancelled until Monday at Vladut Field. This request has been granted by President Walther.

The South Side Castles defeated the Young Kangs yesterday 9 to 2 at Vladut Field, but the game was

The next meeting will be on July 27.

Mrs. Wendall McClurg of West Clayton street, entertained club associates and their husbands recently at their cottage at Rambler's Rest.

Swimming filled the earlier part of the time. Later they gathered around a table, set on the lawn, where a delicious tureen dinner was served. The remainder of the evening was spent playing various games, which proved to be very exciting.

The next meeting will be on July 27.

Twenty six scouts of Troop 4 have returned home after spending an enjoyable week at Camp John M. Phillips.

The boys left with all equipment on Saturday July 13. They spent one grand week of outdoor camping with swimming, hiking, tennis, and trespassing, returning to their homes on July 20.

Bob Walters, James Emerick, Bob Wilkinson and Paul Chambers passed their Junior Red Cross Life Saving tests. While Byrl McCartney and Albert Moss received their swimming merit badges. James and Bill Johnson received their second class rank. Paul Chambers and John Davies, received first class ranking. And Mr. Billotte received three merit badges.

Many things of interest took place during the week. Troop 4 took part in quite a few council fires. An exciting time was had the night that the "wolves" raided the "raven" camp and put their beds and blankets on the roof.

Enroute to their home at Greeley, Col. Mr. and Mrs. George Hill and sons who have been guests at the home of the latter's grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Needier of Crawford avenue, will stop for a few days at Detroit, Mich.

Stock Market Is Stronger Today

Strength In Silvers Combined With Buying In Rails Makes Market Firmer

By LESLIE GOULD

International News Service Financial Writer

NEW YORK, July 23.—Strength in the silvers combined with buying in the rails and some of the industries provided support for the stock market today after it had been upset by a wave of profit-taking in the first hour.

U. S. Smelting set the pace in the metals with a jump of nearly 4 points. Cerro De Pasco rose 2 points. The buoyancy in the group reflected the revival of the inflationary drive in congress.

Rails were in demand on indications that traffic would recover again last week. Although gains were small.

U. S. Steel continued to maintain its market leadership with a fresh rise into new high ground for the year. Chrysler slipped over a point on profit-taking before support appeared. General Motors was easier.

American Can lost over a point and DuPont was easier. Oils continued sluggish utility were firm. Westinghouse ran up to a new high in the electrical equipments while General Electric was active. Farm stocks forged ahead further. Case Threshing running up point. The Laggard Rubbers staged a flurry around noon. Goodyear and the U. S. Rubber issues were prominent.

Commercial Solvents was turned over in large volume in low-priced chemicals, while Allis Rose over a point.

Wheat ran up at the start but lost its gains later. Cotton and silver did little. Bonds were strong.

Look To Liquor For Increase In State Revenues

Believed That One Man Stores Will Add To Desires Of Communities

PLAN WILL BE TO KEEP DOWN OVERHEAD

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, July 23—Pennsylvania's new liquor and beer bills are expected to increase the state's net profits from the liquor stores and beer business from $2,500,000 to $5,000,000 a year according to conservative estimates.

A half million alone is expected to accrue from the new stringent tax regulations against beer importations and the new licensing provisions from out-of-state distillers. The balance is expected to result from tremendous boost in the business of the state stores as a result of new weapons against bootleggers, opening of one-man stores and longer sealing hours.

In its first fiscal year of operation the liquor board earned a net profit of about $5,000,000 on a gross annual business of slightly more than $41,000,000. Officials of the board feel certain the net will be boosted at least $2,000,000 and perhaps more in the coming fiscal year.
This would mean that the gross
business will be increased at least by
about $20,000,000 a year.

The group one-man stores which the board will soon open in all but six or seven of the state's counties are expected to be one of the greatest sources of profit. Overhead will be small because the stores will be located in sparsely settled locations
where rents are cheap. Only one clerk will be needed to operate the dispensaries and the inventories

will be small, limited to only the fastest selling brands. The stores under present plans will all be opened in about 90 days.

The new liquor board has agreed not to pay more than $600 a year for rent for any of the new one-man stores. In addition, the landlords will have to do all the remodeling, including flooring, painting,
repairing and any other alterations.
All the liquor board will supply will be shelves and bins for the stocks.
Previously, the liquor board paid for the cost of all alterations, but that policy was recently discarded and as a result the board has already saved about $100,000 in remodeling costs on some of the larger stores.

The diastic new weapons against bootleggers are expected to be reflected in greatly increased sales.
Alcohol, a prime bootlegger's stock in trade, is now under control of the liquor board. Its enforcement agents have the power of summary arrests and seizures. They are no longer merely glorified snappers.

To encourage sales from legitimate stores, the board will keep its stores in the larger cities open longer,
although not later than 11 at night.
Retailers will be allowed to sell an hour after the polls close on election days. Sales in the past zoom over election day periods and will now be expected to increase even more with retail oases open at night when the ballots have all been marked and are being counted.

A new flow of fees will come from out-of-state distillers who now must meet the same license fees as those paid by distillers operating in the state. This provision was intended to place the Keystone state liquor makers on a more even footing with their out-of-state and foreign competitors.

PITTSBURGH WOMAN IS OUT OF HOSPITAL

Mrs. John Irvine, of 345 Ella St., Pittsburgh, who was injured in an automobile accident along the New Castle-Butler highway, about a week ago, has been discharged from treatment in the New Castle hospital.
This would mean that the gross
business will be increased at least by
about $20,000,000 a year.

The group one-man stores which the
board will soon open in all but six
or seven of the state's counties are expected to be one of the greatest sources of profit. Overhead will be
small because the stores will be located in sparsely settled locations
where rents are cheap. Only one
clerk will be needed to operate the
dispensaries and the inventories

DEFENDANT DISCHARGED

In the case of Susie Rozzi versus Sam Rozzi, of South Mill street, on a charge of surety of the peace, the defendant was discharged due to lack of evidence, following a hearing in the office of Alderman Richard R.
Lewis, of South Mill street, Monday.

"We are living in a belligerent
world," the clubmen heard him say,
and then, turning back the pages of
time he asked these questions:

"Was it the munitions makers
who drove us into war?"

"Was it our fear for our investments that took us across the sea?"

"Or was it our inherent love and
brotherly fellowship we had for our English brothers across the sea that led us there?"

"It was that last, I believe, that caused us to invest our own flesh and blood," he continued, declaring that while munitions makers may have exploited us somewhat, it was after all our hatred for human injustice that caused us to enter the war."

Defense Needed, Rotarians Told

Rev. McAllister, Speaking Monday, Warns It Must Be Adequate

NEED FOR ARMS IS SHOWN IN ADDRESS

While America "need never become a warlike nation," the Rev.
F. B. McAllister, former Baptist minister here and an army chaplain during the World War, told New Castle Rotarians yesterday that "America must always, shall always have an adequate defense."

"That man," he added, significantly, "who calls for peace at any price does not represent my point of view."

Rev. McAllister, now pastor of the First Baptist church of Youngstown, made his declarations during a stirring address which the club-men heard him give on "To Arm or Not to Arm?" In the address he called to attention many phases of the "arm or not to arm" question where his opinions conflict with those of my brethren."

Major Issue For Profession

"The defense question," Rev. Mc-Allister declared, "is one of the major issues that faces my profession today."

He said that the varying opinions of clergymen on the question of whether or not America should keep on arming has created "perpetual furore among the ministers."

He reminded the club at the outset that Rotary has always had in her itinerary of "hopefulness" a warless world and that it was partly that fact that led him to speak on the defense matter.

"We are living in a belligerent
world," the clubmen heard him say,
and then, turning back the pages of
time he asked these questions:

"Was it the munitions makers
who drove us into war?"

"Was it our fear for our investments that took us across the sea?"

"Or was it our inherent love and
brotherly fellowship we had for our English brothers across the sea that

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC
The regular annual Sunday school picnic of the Bessemer Sunday school will be held at Castle Creek on Wednesday afternoon and evening. The picnickers will leave the church at 1 p.m. It will be in the form of a basket picnic. Ralph R. Throop is general chairman and
A. A. Shoup is chairman of transportation. Mrs. Ruehle's class is in charge of the preparing the food
for serving, and the Ladies' Loyall Class is in charge of serving. Swimming and roller skating are among the diversions on the grounds and this year the plans are for an all-around good time.

OUTING AT MILL CREEK

Mrs. Mark Hedegore accompanied her Sunday school class on a picnic outing on Wednesday, when 19 girls were in attendance.
Musical and other sports had been planned and were much enjoyed not only by the girls, but by the older folks that accompanied them.
This outing was held at Mill Creek Park.

LADIES LOYAL TEEN DINNER

About 18 members of the Ladies Loyal Bible class motored to Zelienople on Thursday morning to the home of Mrs. Wayne F. Davis, where they enjoyed a turmen dinner.
There was a great variety of food and each lady had a very nice time.

RETURN FROM HOSPITAL

Franklin Rippone, who underwent an operation for appendicitis
in the Jameson Memorial hospital, has returned to the home of Mrs. Emma McCutcheon, of West Poland avenue, where he is recuperating very nicely.

Dominic Farina has returned to the home of his parents from the Jameson Memorial hospital, where he was undergoing treatment.

BESSEMER NOTES

Nunzio and Carmela Galletta are improving very nicely from their tonsil operation at the Jameson Memorial hospital, the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Joliana and family Rose, Josephine and Frank,
of New Castle, called at the home
of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Yeropoli and family recently.

Miss Dolores McClain, who has spent the past several weeks with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schnable here, has returned to her home at Struthers, O.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rapone and daughter Audrey, of New Castle, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gagliano and family, of West Poland avenue.

SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

Archie Baroff, of 254 East Federal street, Youngstown, Ohio, who was slightly injured in an auto accident along the Youngstown road, near Harbor bridge, Monday afternoon, is showing improvement in the New Castle hospital. He will probably leave the hospital today.

Candidates For 220 Offices To Be Chosen Soon

Commissioners Clerk, W. A.
Eakin, Makes Out List
For Coming Primary

CITY AND COUNTY MOST IMPORTANT

Lawrence county voters will cast their ballots for 220 candidates at the coming primary election, according to a schedule of the offices to be filled, made out this morning
by County Commissioners' Clerk

William A. Eakin.

The only state offices to be filled are one person for judge of, one for prothonotary and clerk of courts, one for county treasurer, three county commissioners, one for country controller, and one for coroner.

The city offices to be filled include one mayor, one treasurer, two councilmen and three school directors.

In the first, second, third, fourth and seventh wards assessors and constables are to be elected. In the fifth, sixth and eighth wards aldermen and constables and assessors will be nominated.

The different boroughs and townships of the county will fill such offices as justice of the peace, assessors, auditors and constables.

Principal interest will center in the county and city offices for which there are long lists of candidates. There will also be some wage contests for borough and township offices.

SUCKERS ARE ASKED TO RAISE BULLFROGS

Complete Course Of Lessons
And Five Pair Of Bullfrogs
All For $4.75

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, July 23.—The
"get rich quick" lure has been dangled before the eyes of a number of Pennsylvania farmers by promoters who have painted golden harvests of profits reaped from the bulldog raising business, the Department of Agriculture warns.

One company in the department said, is attempting to sell a complete course of 16 books on bulldog raising and five pair of frogs for $47.50 cash.

The literature implies, according to the department, that the company will buy back all frogs raised by the farmer but no price is specified.

The company even recommended,
the department said, that back-yard
ponds
